

Because we have different housing needs throughout our lifetime.

Middle housing can benefit everyone in our community.

Housing needs change over the course of our lives.

