EXHIBIT A

3.15.040 Medical Healthcare benefits for Council members.

A. Effective March 1, 2016, City Council Members currently or newly elected to office are eligible to choose to participate in either of the City's medical insurance plans (Group Health or Regence) for themselves and their dependents. Costs for medical insurance premiums shall be paid by the Council Member, not the City, through payroll deduction. Participation is subject to the Association of Washington Cities' underwriting requirements for medical insurance.
